

Children's Activity #13a

Word Associations

The game is quite simple. One person starts by saying one word and then the next says the first word that comes to their mind, the next person does the same, and so it continues.

So for example: I might start by saying "Star Wars"; my son might say "Yoda"; my daughter, "green"; my husband, "goblin"... and so on and so on.