

Torin's Clue #1

Torin says....

Now that the Fjeld homestead has been reunited with the land, Torin decided there was one place he simply had to visit first.

Long before the Legacy Prairie & Woodlands existed, this hilltop was part of the farm of Pastor John Fjeld (Field), who came from Norway in the 1880s to serve the young Vermont Lutheran congregation. Today, Fjeld's View marks the last remaining piece of the original Fjeld farmstead—a place where history, faith, and the landscape come together.

Torin has wandered off to take in the view and remember what this land looked like long ago.

Can you find him?

"I'm standing where history meets the horizon. From here, I can see prairies, woodlands, and a future rooted in the past."
