

FAVORITE HYMN SPOTLIGHT: Borning Cry, ELW 732

One of the joys of our congregation is discovering the hymns that have shaped and sustained our faith. This month, we feature another of the church's most cherished hymns, "Borning Cry," by John Ylvisaker. The ballad style of the music lends itself to a feeling of a love song. A love song between God and the singer.

It reminds us that God's presence surrounds us throughout every season of life. With its gentle melody and story-like verses, the hymn traces our evolving relationship with God, from childhood and growing years, through times of searching and change, and ultimately to the end of our earthly journey.

"I was there to hear your borning cry,
I'll be there when you are old.
I rejoiced the day you were baptized,
to see your life unfold."

One of our members shared why this hymn is a favorite: "I love the melody, it's in my range, and I like songs that tell a story. Especially one of our evolving relationship with God and God's constant relationship with us from beginning to end."

Perhaps that is what makes "Borning Cry" so meaningful: it reminds us that while our lives and faith may change, God's faithful presence never does. May we be motivated by God's presence to be Christ's presence in the world.

For more than 50 years, John Ylvisaker's words and music have been a powerful influence on the development of new worship materials for the church. Although "Borning Cry" is his most famous work, Ylvisaker's repertoire is extensive, with more than 1,000 songs to his name. A native of Moorhead, Minnesota, and a graduate of Concordia College, Ylvisaker traveled extensively throughout the United States as part of the civil rights movement. During this time, he was influenced by the music and social vision of folk singer Pete Seeger, an experience that helped shape his own approach to songwriting and worship. Ylvisaker believed that worship music should engage both the mind and the heart. In the preface to Borning Cry – Worship for a New Generation (1994), he wrote, "I need to have my mind stimulated by the performance tradition and I need to have my heart touched by full participation in the song tradition of the church." His music continues to do just that—inviting us not simply to sing, but to think, feel, and participate fully in the story of faith.

September, the month of Labor Day, the start of school, the Autumnal Equinox, and the Packers drive to the Super Bowl, is chocked full of activities. Last month I outlined upcoming things to watch for and participate in. Here's a brief recap:

Parade: Vermont Church will have a tractor and hay wagon, driven by Doug Hayes, in the Mazomanie Wild West Days parade on Sunday, September 13th. Come and ride on the hay wagon, walk behind to hand out goodies, or be a spectator to cheer us on!

Quilt Blessing: The quilters' hard work is on display in the pews, with the blessing of the quilts on Sunday, September 6th. You can purchase a quilt, to defray some of the cost of transporting the quilts, and/or help box the quilts up for transportation right after Labor Day.

Rally Day & Team Fair: The start of our Sunday school year and our annual Team Fair are both on Sunday, September 20th. Come to the fair to learn more about what each team does, activities you can participate in, and perhaps sign up to be a team member.

Host Fest Preparation: Our annual fall festival is on Saturday, October 17th. You can help with potato boiling/lefse dough preparation on Friday, September 18th and 25th, and/or lefse rolling, baking and packaging on Saturday, September 19th and 26th. Times for these preparation dates and sign-up sheets for volunteering will be posted right after Labor Day.

In addition to these upcoming activities, I'd like to provide you with a summary of a few items from your council's August meeting:

Safety and Security: The council approved and adopted a Security Policy and a Security Camera Policy that were developed and recommended by the Safety and Security team.

Both policies will be posted on our website, made available to members, and, in the case of security cameras, posted as signs to inform everyone of their use. And the policies are intended to provide a safe, secure and welcoming environment for all who worship, work, volunteer, or visit the church facilities.

Golf Cart "Rules": The council approved and adopted rules for who can use the golf cart, where the cart can be driven, and that no personal golf carts are allowed without council or Legacy committee approval. The full rules will be posted on our website, on a sign at the trailhead, and a shorter notice sign attached to the golf cart.

Vitality Task Force: The council created the ad hoc Vitality Task Force in April after the full council met with Sara Schulting-Kranz via Zoom, in February. Since then, the task force has met several times with Sara to determine a strategic format for gathering information from the congregation, the cottage conversations, that will help us determine a path forward with shared values and commitments.

At our council meeting, the task force presented a summary of the cottage conversations and we discussed the letter that all congregation members received in an email soon after the last cottage meeting with Sara. In that letter, the task force stated:

"Our immediate next step is to develop five to six Guiding Pillars, with God at the center, to help guide our planning and decision-making for the future of Vermont Lutheran Church."

I want to thank everyone that participated in the cottage conversations or wrote responses to the questions the task force asked. As we move forward, it is very important that all members feel heard and that decisions are being made in the best interest of the entire congregation.

Call Committee Update: I reported to the council that Bishop Joy has restructured her office staff. Marie Leafblad, who was the source of many of our early concerns about the call process, is no longer involved in the call process. Taking Marie's place as associate to the bishop for mobility and transition is retired pastor Don Glanzer.

I have known Don for many years and believe that he can help us. It is my hope that this connection will lead to us getting the attention we deserve from the synod and result in us getting candidates to interview and eventually call a pastor.

In closing, summer has flown by. What is usually a fairly quiet time around church was not the case this summer – changes and improvements in the fellowship hall, creation of the Kids Cove (former Solomon's Temple) and balcony room nursery room, tiding up the Gathering Place storeroom, Cottage Conversations, team and committee meetings, caring for the Rosenbaum Memorial Garden, leading two tour groups around the Prairie & Woodland, serving the riders at the Horribly Hilly Hundreds aide station, visiting or communicating with our shut-ins, and many other examples of volunteering that I'm not aware of are all sure signs that we are a congregation that cares about each other and CARES about our mission. Thank you!

VLC GIVING. We are grateful for the many ways people support the ministry of our church. Giving is one expression of faith and care, and every gift—of time, talent, or financial resources—helps sustain our shared mission. Whether you give in person during worship, through the mail, or online, each offering is received with deep appreciation and thanksgiving for the work of the Gospel among us.

Council Member Feature

Karsten Haugen

If you've ever wondered who keeps an eye on the church's finances, look no further than Karsten Haugen! Karsten has been part of the Vermont Lutheran Church family for more than 60 years. Although he spent a few years living in Madison, he and his wife, Kim, eventually returned to the area, building their home on a piece of his parents farm. As Karsten jokes, "So am I still living with Mom and Dad?"

Karsten and Kim have been married for 33 years and have two sons, Tyler and Nathan. After retiring from a 32-year career as an IT Technical Support Analyst at CUNA Mutual Group, Karsten stays busy managing rental properties and making the most of retirement.

Retirement has also kept their travel agent busy! This year alone, he has traveled to Colorado, enjoyed a golf getaway in Mexico, and explored Portugal by bicycle. Closer to home, Karsten enjoys camping, golfing, biking, hiking, kayaking, and just about any excuse to spend time outdoors.

Born into the congregation, Karsten says the people of Vermont Lutheran have become his faith family. His calm, patient demeanor and steady approach to problem-solving make him a perfect fit for his many roles. In addition to serving as Treasurer, he is chair of the Cemetery Committee, secretary of the Legacy Committee, and the church's unofficial technology support person-a role that has been invaluable as we continue working to streamline our administrative operations.

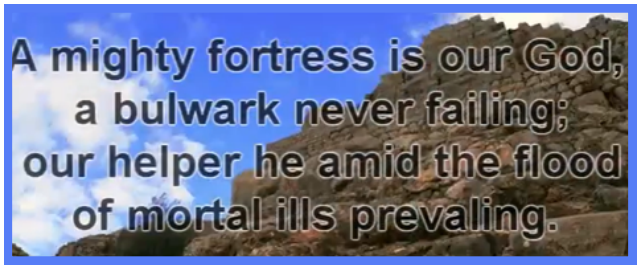

Karsten joined the council because he believes it's important to be involved and use the gifts God has given him. When the Treasurer position opened, his experience with numbers made it a natural fit. "They told me it would be easy," he laughs. "That part isn't really living up to its billing."

As Treasurer, Karsten oversees the church's financial reporting and helps develop the annual operating budget. His goal has been to better understand the church's finances so he can help explain them clearly to both the council and congregation. He says serving on the council has been a tremendous learning experience, especially during a pastoral transition, and he's been encouraged by the council's dedication to moving Vermont Lutheran Church's mission forward.

Karsten sees God at work through the congregation's commitment to living out the mission of "God's Work. Our Hands." Despite being a small church, he believes Vermont Lutheran continues to make a big impact through its many ministries and outreach efforts.

Looking ahead, he hopes to welcome a new pastor who will provide consistent spiritual leadership while helping the congregation continue to grow in faith and mission. Karsten's favorite hymn is "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," and he especially enjoys hymns with rich harmonies.

One fun fact: Karsten doesn't like fruit. His official review? "Eww!"

Ministry Team Profile: The Missions Team

We're excited to continue to shine a spotlight on one of the ministry teams or committees that help bring our church's mission to life. It's a chance to learn more about the people, passion, and purpose behind the work happening all around us. In August*, we continue with a team devoted to telling our story—the Missions Team.

Missions Team:
Supporting, connecting, and lifting up mission at Vermont Lutheran
"Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." — Matthew 25:40

Mission at Vermont Lutheran has never belonged to just one team. It happens throughout our congregation—in quilts stitched with care, backpacks filled for children, food collected for our neighbors, support sent around the world, and countless acts of generosity and service.

The Mission Team's role is to help all of that good work thrive.

Formed in 2024, the current team began by learning more about the many mission efforts already happening at Vermont. We quickly discovered people deeply committed to serving others, often through ministries they have faithfully supported for years.

Rather than taking over those efforts, the Mission Team follows a simple approach: coordinate when coordination is helpful, lift up ministries that need greater visibility or support, and get out of the way when people are already doing great work.

That might mean helping recruit volunteers, communicating a need, connecting with community organizations, coordinating financial support, or making sure the congregation knows what is happening. The team also looks for gaps and new opportunities, including seasonal food drives, Lent and Advent projects, or disaster relief collections.

Meanwhile, many long-standing ministries continue to flourish through their own dedicated volunteers—from quilting, school backpacks and food pantry partnerships to homeless veterans' outreach, CARES, ELCA Global Mission support, and WorldWise Microfinance.

Most importantly, mission is not something the Mission Team does on behalf of Vermont Lutheran. It is something all of us do together.

Sometimes supporting mission means leading the way. Sometimes it means shining a light on someone else's work. And sometimes it simply means getting out of the way and letting good people do good things.

Together, we continue responding to God's love by sharing it with our neighbors—near and far.

Current team members include Klover Schafer (chair), Pete Jones (council liaison), Joanie Haugen, Paul Ohlrogge, Jeff Dickinson, and Ellie Boebel.

The Safety & Security Team continues working to improve emergency preparedness and building security at Vermont Lutheran Church. At our July meeting, the team reviewed the proposed Security Policy and Security Camera Use Policy, which have been forwarded to the Church Council for approval. We are now developing practical procedures for medical emergencies, fire and evacuation, severe weather, lockdowns, and other significant events.

The team is also working to inventory emergency supplies and equipment, review exit routes, and coordinate with our Faith Community LPN on routine checks of medical equipment, including AEDs, as well as future CPR training opportunities.

Interested in helping? Visit us at the Rally Day Team Fair on September 20. We especially welcome those with emergency services, healthcare, fire/EMS, law enforcement, or other related experience, as well as anyone interested in helping VLC be better prepared.

The Kitchen Team
The Kitchen Team continues caring for and maintaining our church kitchen. The team cleaned and organized the serving bowl and tray cupboards, removing items that were broken, too small, or no longer needed; these items were made available for members to take. Personal care items from the kitchen cupboards were also donated to the Food Pantry. The team checked kitchen and bathroom supplies, addressed a non-working soap dispenser, and noted additional supplies that need to be ordered. They also identified a few maintenance needs, including a clogged sink drain, kitchen lighting, and windows and screens that need attention. A special thank-you to the Building Team. The sink and plumbing have now been repaired! The Kitchen Team appreciates everyone who helps keep our kitchen clean, organized, and ready for the many ways we gather and serve together.

Sunday School

Looking for a way to make a difference and have fun with some pretty great kids? We are still in need of volunteers to join our Sunday School team!

Krista Dybdahl has graciously volunteered to co-teach, and we're looking for one or more people to share the Sunday morning classes with her. No teaching experience or theology degree required—just a willingness to share your faith and encourage our young people. Curriculum and materials are provided, and our rotation model means lessons are shared over four weeks with a variety of activities. The commitment is shared, the support is there, and the kids are worth it! Come join us—you might have as much fun as they do! Want to know more or volunteer, see Joanie Haugen.

Mark your calendars for the first day of Sunday School Rally Sunday — September 20.

Faith Community LPN

September is here, bringing cooler days, changing leaves, and a wonderful opportunity to focus on our health as we head into a new season! 🍂

September is Healthy Aging Month, reminding us that taking care of ourselves is important at every age. Healthy aging isn't about being perfect—it's about making small choices that help us feel our best and continue doing the things we enjoy.

A few important September health observances:

🧓 Healthy Aging Month — A great reminder to stay active, keep learning, nurture friendships, and care for both our physical and emotional well-being.

❤️ National Recovery Month — A time to celebrate the strength of those in recovery and offer encouragement and support.

🩸 National Sickle Cell Awareness Month — Helping increase understanding and awareness of sickle cell disease.

🧠 September 21 – World Alzheimer's Day — A day to increase awareness and remember those living with Alzheimer's and other forms of dementia, along with the caregivers who walk alongside them.

💜 Falls Prevention Awareness — September is also a great time to take a fresh look around our homes and remove things that could cause a fall.

🌟 Health Tip of the Month: "Keep Moving!"

As the weather cools down, don't let your activity level cool down with it! Try taking a walk, doing some gentle stretching, gardening, dancing to your favorite music, or simply getting up and moving throughout the day.

Small steps really do add up! Staying active can help support strength, balance, energy, and independence—and it can be a wonderful way to enjoy the beauty of God's creation and the changing leaves this fall. 🍁

"A cheerful heart is good medicine." — Proverbs 17:22

Rally Day & Team Fair

This year, we're kicking off our ministry year with a fun and meaningful Rally Day & Team Fair on Sunday, September 20, following worship. Our theme is "Built Together," reminding us that each of us is an important piece of the larger church community.

Just like LEGO® bricks come in different shapes, sizes, and colors, God has given each of us different gifts, interests, and abilities. When we put those gifts together, something beautiful can be built! Our church ministries and teams are no different. Each person brings something special, and together we build a stronger community of faith.

Come enjoy food, fun, fellowship, and a LEGO® activity where everyone can add their own "brick" to help build our church community. You'll also have an opportunity to discover the many ways to connect, serve, and share your gifts through our church teams and ministries.

And this year, we're encouraging everyone to get up, move around, and explore! We're planning a Team Fair Bingo Card with squares featuring different tables to visit and activities to try. Stop by the tables, meet the people involved, learn something new, and participate along the way. Once you get a BINGO, you can enter your card into a drawing for gift cards from local businesses!

Whether you've been involved for years or are looking for a new way to participate, there is a place for you. Come see what's happening, meet others, share your gifts, and find your piece in the bigger picture of what God is building among us. Come build with us!

A Prayer for Students and Teachers

Gracious and loving God, as students and teachers begin a new school year, we ask for your blessing and presence to be with them. Bless our students with curious minds, open hearts, and a willingness to learn. Give them courage when they face something difficult, patience when things don't go as planned, and kindness toward one another. Help them discover their gifts and use them to make a difference in the lives of others.

Bless our teachers, administrators, and school staff with wisdom, creativity, patience, and strength. Encourage them in the important work they do each day. Remind them that their words, care, and example can have a lasting impact on the lives of their students.

Surround our schools with your peace and protection. Help our classrooms and hallways be places where everyone feels welcomed, respected, safe, and valued. Guide us to look out for one another and to respond with compassion when someone is struggling.

May this new school year be filled with opportunities to learn, grow, make new friends, overcome challenges, and celebrate accomplishments. In all the changes and new beginnings, remind us that you walk beside us wherever we go.

May your love shine through our students, teachers, families, and communities throughout the year.

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

TORNADO RESPONSE FOR OUR WISCONSIN NEIGHBORS

The devastation caused by the recent tornadoes in the Appleton and Menasha areas of Wisconsin remains significant. In response to the needs of our neighbors, Vermont Lutheran will be accepting donations through September 6, after which we will forward all gifts directly to the East Central Synod of Wisconsin.

The Synod plans to share 50% of the gifts received with local nonprofits and ministry partners supporting those most vulnerable following the storm. The remaining 50% will be shared with congregations in the disaster areas to support the recovery of neighbors and neighborhoods.
The Synod has expressed both surprise and deep appreciation for the generous support already coming from church communities across Wisconsin.

It's easy to give! Simply make your donation to Vermont Lutheran and designate it for "Tornado Response." We will take care of forwarding your gift. You may also donate at the East Central Synod website, https://www.ecsw.org/

Thank you for your generosity and for caring for our Wisconsin neighbors during this time of recovery.
